

'Living Loss' Conference 17 October 2007

Evaluation

Thought provoking – challenging - informative

Very positive, but also pointing to the losses and acknowledging it

Good knowledge and experience of how dementia can impact on so many people in different ways

Very powerful, impacting, relevant factually – excellent, excellent

Venue very good and all very good speakers – a big thank you

Absolutely brilliant

Interesting to have a wide range of topics all relating to Living Loss

Today opened in all aspects across very diverse topics the meaning of living loss and the impact of this. Very informative day and enjoyable, feel great benefit from knowledge attained from speakers.

Useful revision and Gabrielle's personal view was very helpful

All speakers very interesting and relevant in content

A very useful and informative day
